From Monday November 13. to Thursday November 16. 1704.

St. James's, November 14.

THE following Addreſs from the Borough of Ripon was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Sharpe Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of York.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace of and within his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of York his Liberties of Ripon, in the County of York, and of the Grand Jury at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at Ripon the Seventh Day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign; and of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Ripon; together with other Gentlemen and Freeholders within the Liberties aforeſaid.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty.

WE Your Majeſty's Dutiful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon thoſe Glorious Victories Your Arms have obtained over the French and Bavarian Forces. It is well known, that Your Majeſty's being at the Head of the preſent Alliances, hath produced this happy Succeſs. May Heaven ſtill protect Your Majeſty in this great Undertaking, till You have reſtored Peace to thoſe contending Nations that are about You; that You may be acknowledged as great a Bleſſing abroad, as You are to Your People at home. It is very remarkable, that extraordinary Actions have happen'd under the Government of Two Engliſh Queens; and may Your Majeſty's happy Reign over us laſt very long; for nothing but want of time can hinder Your Majeſty from being more Renowned than any of Your Glorious Predeceſſors.

The Two Addreſſes which follow have likewiſe been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

MADAM,

WE, the Lieutenant-Governor, Lieutenant-Bayliff, Jurats, and Civil Officers, of the Royal Court of Your Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey, parcel of Your ancient Dutchy of Normandy, do moſt humbly pray Your Majeſty to permit us, with the reſt of Your Faithful Subjects, to expreſs our Joy for the Glorious Succeſſes of Your Arms, as well in the Battel of Hochſtet, under the Conduct of Your brave General the Duke of Marlborough, as in the taking of Gibraltar, and in the Victory obtained over the French Fleet by Your Majeſty's Navy commanded by Sir George Rooke; wherein God has manifeſtly clared himſelf Your Protector, and ſhown his Approbation of Your Zeal and Piety.

We return our moſt humble Thanks to God for it, and pray to him, from the bottom of our Hearts, to make Your Arms ſtill ſucceſsful by Sea and Land, in order to bring down the Pride of Your Enemies; and that Your Majeſty, being crowned with Lawrels, may procure us a Glorious Peace: And that he may preſerve Your Majeſty, and grant You a long and happy Reign over us.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Clergy of the Iſland of Guernſey.

MADAM,

WE, the Dean, Rectors and Miniſters, of Your Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey, being ſenſibly affected with the happy Succeſſes wherewith it has pleaſed Almighty God to bleſs Your Majeſty's Arms both at Sea and Land during this Campaign, find our ſelves under a powerful Obligation to expreſs to Your Majeſty our Joy for it. We conſider theſe great Victories Your Generals have gained as the propitious Work of Heaven, as the Effect of the Valour of Your Officers, and as a Reward for Your Piety towards God, and Your Zeal towards his Church. Theſe Glorious Events fill us with great Hopes for the future: And we look upon thoſe Couragious Troops, and that Invincible Fleet, which have lately died the Danube and the Streights with the Blood of Your Enemies, as ſo many Heralds, who were ſent to declare to the World the Glory and the Strength of Your Scepter; and as ſo many Meſſengers deſigned to carry to the Common Enemy of Europe the News of his own Confuſion. We pray God that he will pour down yet more and more his Bleſſings upon Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon; and that he will give You a long, happy and proſperous Reign, to the end You may maintain the Glory of Your Kingdoms, confound all Your Enemies, be the Admiration of all Mankind; and at length that, after many Triumphs, You may give Peace to Europe; and, as Cirus did heretofore, may now reſtore both in the Eaſt and the Weſt the Sanctuaries which Superſtition has thrown down. Theſe are the Sentiments of Your Faithful Subjects, and theſe are the Prayers they offer to Heaven in behalf of Your Majeſty.

At Guernſey, November 1. 1704.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.
